

Sorting Captain Job Description

The sorting captain oversees the receiving, sorting, and loading of food donations.

Captains are also responsible for greeting and training new volunteers throughout the day.

In the morning, you will set up tables and boxes according to sorting categories.

You will then be in charge of monitoring supplies, boxes, and volunteers, as well as answering questions and assisting with tasks as food is packed and loaded into the truck.